1. Since the Europa Jugend seceded from the Pan-Europa Bund in November 1947, the work of organizing youth activities for the Bund has been carried out by Heinz Schulz, head of the Jugendausschuss of the Pan-Europa Bund. Schulz, who lives in Berlin-Wiederschönhausen, was recently called in to the local komendatura where he was warned to stop working for the Bund. He was told that since the Pan-Europa Bund had not been licensed in the Russian Sector of Berlin, his work for that organization might be regarded as subversive and illegal. Schulz is now under MWD surveillance.
2. The leaders of the group which promoted the secession of the Europa Jugend from the Pan-Europa Bund are Otto Thierfelder and Heinrich Keul. It was Thierfelder who earlier in 1947 urged that the Pan-Europa Bund transfer its headquarters from the Bendlerstrasse in the British Sector to Liebknechtstrasse 18 in the Soviet Sector. Heinrich Keul, in conjunction with a fellow-Stadtverordnete, Helga Zibell (SED), has applied for a license for the newly-independent Europa-Jugend. Keul hopes to receive 50,000 RM in financial aid from the SED although he himself is a nominal member of the CDU and a follower of Kurt Landsberg.
